Airport Manager of the Year

Person of the Year

Lifetime Achievement Award

Qualifications for Nominees:

Each summer the Virginia Department of Aviation recognizes the extraordinary efforts of members of Virginia's aviation community through the presentation of the Virginia Aviation Awards.

The Virginia Airport Manager of the Year Award recognizes the efforts of airport managers/executive directors over the previous year. Each airport in the Commonwealth is an important member of Virginia's Air Transportation System and their managers are talented and innovative individuals who deserve to be acknowledged for their efforts.

The Virginia Aviation Person of the Year Award is for an individual who, over the last year, has made a significant contribution to aviation in the Commonwealth. The contribution may be airport related (development, improvement, promotion, etc.) or may be related to aviation community relations/promotion, aviation education, aviation safety, aviation technology, aviation policies, etc. There are creative, dedicated, and hardworking individuals in Virginia who, over the last year, have made a difference through their efforts and deserve to be recognized.

The Virginia Aviation Lifetime Achievement Award is presented annually to an individual who has made significant contributions to Virginia aviation over an extended period of time. The contribution may be airport related (development, improvement, promotion, etc.) or may be related to aviation community relations/promotion, aviation education, aviation safety, aviation technology, aviation policies, etc. These individuals have improved aviation in Virginia in one area, or in multiple areas, for many years. These are the individuals who know, and make, aviation history in Virginia.

Anyone may submit nominations for the above awards. If, as you read this, you think of someone you feel deserves recognition, please nominate them for the award or award(s) that they qualify for. It's okay if we get more than one nomination form for the same individual. Also, if your nominee is not selected for recognition one year, please don't get discouraged, because we sometimes receive nominations for multiple well qualified candidates and are only able to recognize a limited few each year. We encourage you to continue to nominate those you feel go above and beyond to improve aviation in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

When recipients are selected in late spring, both they and the individual(s) who nominated them will be notified. The recipient will receive their award at the Annual Virginia Aviation Awards Banquet.
