Keynote Speaker - Mark Grady

Mark is an aviation writer and commercial pilot who pokes fun at his height (or lack of it!). Combining broadcasting with his love of flying, he worked 10 years as a traffic watch pilot reporting for three radio stations. He is familiar to North Carolinians as radio talk show host, TV telethon host and television commercial personality. What Mark lacks in height, he makes up for in heart. His relaxed, friendly way of speaking is reflected in his writing for various publications including the Southern Aviator, General Aviation News, Weekend Flyer, Wilmington Star-News and Jacksonville Daily News. He uses humor to effectively convey a safety message to pilots at safety seminars. He was also the featured speaker during this year's Virginia Aviation Safety Week. He'll be opening the 2010 Virginia Aviation Conference on a light-hearted note with "Your Airport: A Friendly Approach."

Registration Deadline:
July 26, 2010

Luncheon Speaker - Ken Scott

Ken Scott was born and raised in Iowa City, Iowa where he obtained his BS in Civil Engineering. While serving on active military duty with the Army Corps of Engineering, he also received his Masters Degree in Civil Engineering at the University of Missouri. Ken was assigned in Europe, Vietnam and Ethiopia, as well as stateside in Virginia, Missouri and Kansas while serving in the Army Corps. He joined the Norfolk Airport Authority in 1970 as airport project engineer and was given the additional title of assistant airport manager in 1971. In 1972, Ken was appointed Executive Director of the Norfolk Airport Authority. During his tenure with the Airport Authority, he also served as the official representative to Airports Council International-North America (ACI-NA), and was a member of the American Association of Airport Executives (AAAE) and Virginia Airport Operators Council (VAOC). Currently, Ken Scott serves on the Board of Directors and Executive Committee of the Norfolk Convention and Visitors Bureau and the Board of Directors of the United Way of South Hampton Roads Foundation. He is also a charter (1980) member of the Rotary Club of Hampton Roads, of which he served as its first president.

The Olympic-Style Beach Games will continue this year at the Beach! Thursday afternoon will include fun in the sun team building and of course, prizes for stand-out performances.
